LET US SHED SOME LIGHT...

YOU HAVE A LOT OF LAW FIRMS TO CHOOSE FROM - WHY CHOOSE US?
FOR THE BEST LEGAL OUTCOME FOR YOU

WHO WE ARE

We formed Harrington, Ocko & Monk, LLP in 1992 to offer a full spectrum of legal services to businesses and individual clients. We pride ourselves upon our reputation; and that many firm clients have been referred by other clients as well as adversaries.

Our firm is small by design, which allows us to provide highly personalized service, always focused on building lasting relationships with our clients. At the same time, many of our lawyers have practiced for decades and have big firm training which enables us to handle even the most complex cases and transactions. Our clients benefit from our long-standing relationships with key players in the business and legal communities. Despite our size, we are committed to and invest in legal technology and software to enhance our attorney's abilities to deliver exceptional and efficient legal services.

WHAT WE DO

Our lawyers have a wide breadth of experience in insurance defense, commercial and business litigation, construction, business and corporate matters, real estate and financing transactions, professional liability litigation, trademark and copyright law, employment law, trusts and estates and outside general counsel services.

HOW WE WORK

What sets our firm apart? We take your telephone calls. We keep you informed. We measure our success at how well and how efficiently we resolve the matters you place in our trust. From the very first meeting, as we learn your business or personal situation which brought you to us; we begin to frame a preliminary plan to select the best among alternative approaches to solving your problem and achieving the desired outcome. We work collaboratively among our staff and with you, prepared to adjust to changing circumstances and capitalize on opportunities presented. We learn your business strategy to help you analyze current and future risks and needs to select and implement a superior plan to tackle the problems that you face.

Harrington, Ocko & Monk, LLP is a sophisticated regional law firm. Most of our attorneys have been selected to the Super Lawyers® list or the New York Metro Rising Stars list. Only five percent of lawyers in each state are selected annually.
